Your duties will include:

Assurance: Lead some areas of audit, create WP, prepare FS

Tax: Prepare Form 990, 1040, 1120, State returns and present to clients

Consulting: Assist on CFO-type engagements

Other: Participate in Business Valuation and other ad-hoc projects as needed

Candidate qualifications:

3-5 years of recent work experience in a CPA firm (non-profit/audit experience preferred)

Minimum Bachelor Degree (GPA 3.5 and above favorable)

Active CPA license or sections of CPA exam passed

Working knowledge of current accounting standards and trends

Strong knowledge of MS Office 2007 and Vista necessary

Profx (Tax and Engagement) and QuickBooks knowledge favorable

Excellent written, oral and quantitative skills

Self-motivated, unhesitating, detail-oriented, and reliable

Professional appearance and pleasant conduct

Must be willing to travel overnight (30%)

The right candidate must be willing to take on responsibility, work in a team and independently to complete projects in a timely manner. He or she must be bright, have solid logical reasoning and an analytical mind. Interpersonal skills and professional conduct must be superior compared to peers. If you have these qualifications and want to contribute to the growth of our company, we would love to hear from you! Please send your cover letter, resume, and salary requirements to Lucie Krizova at lucie@jamesageorgepc.com with "Senior Accountant" in the subject line.
